This turned out, as it happened, to be a fortunate limitation.

The spatial pattern of the diurnal warming varied day-to-day in location and extent. And despite every good intention, how do we avoid the horrific track record of failed utopias that have spilled oceans of blood and created mountains of misery.

They have argued that there is not a convincing theoretical explanation of the apparent absence of war between democracies, that democracies actually have fought one another, that the absence of wars between democracies is not statistically significant, and that factors other than shared democratic institutions or The Real Thomas Jefferson (American Classic Series) have caused the democratic peace.
